

FUZE - FAQs

What is Fuze?

Fuze is a three-part talent competition with a unique twist, accepting entries from talented contestants across four content pillars - Music, Dance, Fashion, Technology or Innovation.

Who is eligible to participate?

Fuze is open to contestants who are between the ages of 18 and 35 years, as at 01 December 2022 and are citizens of Nigeria or have legal authorisation to live in Nigeria.

What is exempted from participating?

Employees and relatives of the Producer (Livespot360) and the Sponsors (Stanbic IBTC). You are also exempted from participating if you have a prior binding agreement with another financial institution (such as modelling or endorsement deal with a competing brand to the Show sponsor) or if you are unable to commit to the Terms and Conditions.

How much is audition fee?

Fuze is free of charge and does not require you to pay any fees to submit your audition video for consideration.

How can I submit my audition video?

Upload your 60-second Audition Video on your social media page, go to the audition platform – Download the Stanbic IBTC EVENTS app - fill all fields of the application form. You will be required to upload a valid means of identification and your audition video showing off your talent or presentation as well as provide the link to the social media post of your video.

What happens after I submit my audition video?

Your audition video will be reviewed to decide whether you go through to the next phase of the audition, which is a physical audition in Lagos – Nigeria. If you make it through to the physical audition, the Producer will contact you via the e-mail provided and phone number. Transportation to the venue of the physical audition shall be at your expense. Please note that even if you do not make it to the next round of physical audition, your submitted video may be featured across the show and marketing content.

What are the stages of the competition?
