

Where are you at half-time?

Imagine that you are a football player and suddenly, the referee blows the whistle, and you realise it's half-time already. It's time to swap to the other side of the field. This could be your current situation and you are probably wondering, 'How did the time fly so fast?' 'What have I been doing?'

If not carefully managed, one could be thrown into a frenzy of activities in a bid to catch up with the lost time.

However, if you are on the other side of the table where you are on track with your goals, it's okay to congratulate yourself.

Whatever side of the table you find yourself, here are 3 simple Rs that can help you make the rest of the year your best year ever:

- ▶ Revamp your plan
- ▶ Reorder your priorities
- ▶ Review your goals and set new milestones

We hope this helps and we wish you a productive year ahead!

Remember, we remain your trusted partner who is committed to ensuring that you retire well.
